

Another opening, Another show.

We are inviting you to the next art opening for Les Lourigan's artwork.

It will be July 24th, 2010 at:

ARTSPACE

555 ASYLUM STREET

HARTFORD, CT

From 6PM to 9PM

(Our phone number is 860-563-5581 if you will please call with an RSVP so we have some idea how many can come.)

The exhibit will include many pieces most of you haven't seen unless you have been to the gallery because they aren't on the websites.

We hope to see as many of you as possible. Since the opening at The New Britain Museum of American Art and the article in The Wethersfield Post, there has been a lot of interest in Les's work so we are happy we reserved the ArtSpace last year. It seemed so far away but here it is in less than three weeks.

Please join us and have a wonderful summer.

Also we will have a booth at the Wethersfield Cornfest September 18th from 10AM to 5PM Rain or Shine. We will have many of the designs and names Les has created over the years-pray for peace.
